First, John Owen (Idaho) was not in Harrisburg last year. The plaque which we have is identified as "Trophy donated by Bwrdd Croeso Cymru--Wales Tourist Board" at the bottom. At the top "Inaugurated Bellvue, WA 1994. Competition Winner--Enillid Y Gystadleuaeth.

There are six engraved metal plates attached to the plaque as follows:

John Owen, Boise, ID, Tenor--1994
Susy Hopkins & Colleen Kennedy--1997
John Gwynn & Kathleen Matts--1998
John Owen, Boise, ID--Tenor 1999
John Owen, Boise, ID--Tenor 2000
John Owen, Boise, ID--Tenor 2001

email: [redacted]

Also attached on a post-it note is: Robert O'Brien, Incline Village, NV--Tenor 2002. His metal plate is the one that needs to be engraved and attached below the others.

Is this the plaque you were thinking of?

Alan:

This morning I reached Robert O'Brien who is listed as winning the tenor solo last year in Harrisburg. He confirmed that he was presented a plaque but gave it back to the Eisteddfod coordinator who, in turn, gave it to me to bring back here to St. Peter. This particular plaque has been given to the winning vocal soloist.

The "birdhouse trophy" lists instrumental winners on its plates; and the silver chalice has been given to choral winners.

For what other category would the Puget Sound plaque been given?
