LODGE ANTHEM

(Soloist : Wor. Bro. WALTER JONES, I.P.M.)

In old St. Quentin's Lodge doth shine
The Light of Masonry
For with the Tools we emulate
The sons of husbandry.
The Square our Scythe, the Rule our Spade
To achieve the Grand Design,
So we plough and sow, and reap and mow
Just like a farmer's boy.

The Ancient Landmarks we observe
Our hearts we do not spare:
Upon the Level we all meet
And part upon the Square.
So that is why we loudly cry
And sing with might and main :
We plough and sow, and reap and mow,
Just like a farmer's boy.
