

	Grade II listed (Colours)	2011
1784	John Phelps (excise officer) owned and occupied, 4s.	LTA
1800	John Philips owned; William Robert occupied, 4s.	LTA
1815	Isaiah Verity owned; Mrs. Edmondson occupied, 4s.	LTA
1830	Abraham Verity owned, 1/- ( ? unoccupied )	LTA
1840	? this site William James owned and occupied, freehold house in East Village	Electoral register
1842, 12 th March	? this site To be let - situate in the town of Cowbridge, now occupied by Mrs Lewis, consisting of a parlour, kitchen, back kitchen and pantry on the ground floor, a sitting room and two bedrooms on the second, and two bedrooms on the third, with a garden.	Cambrian
1843	Abraham Verity owned; Anne Lewis occupied	Tithe 141
1848	Freehold dwelling house with convenient outhouses and extensive garden sited in the eastern village, occupied by Mr William James, carpenter	Lot 13 in sale catalogue of Verity properties – chs07583
1851	William James, 52, joiner and builder employing three men, with wife Harriet and five children, plus an apprentice journeyman Daughter Harriet James became a governess in pre-revolutionary Russia. The apprentice, Henry Fry emigrated to Australia in 1854 in the ship 'Bangalore'. Using his carpentry skills, he constructed station buildings for the railway, which gave him the capital to set up the first general store and first post office in Woolongong.	Census 151  See James family of Cowbridge in archive, chs02501
1861	William James and family A further son, Alfred, had been born 7 years earlier, and he and his elder brother William A. became Russian spies, in the reign of George Vth.	Census chs02501

1871	John George, 38, coal merchant born Llancarvan, with wife Mary A. George, 39, born Llantwit Major, and children Alfred 8, Emma 7, Ada 5 and William 7 months. John George had moved to another house in Eastgate by 1881 and was living in 51 Eastgate in the 1901 census, a widower, coal merchant, with his daughters Annie and Ada. In 1911, he was living in Batsleys Farm, St Athan/Llantwit Major with his brother Thomas, daughter Emma and his grandson. Over the years, he was the owner of land at Beggar's Bush (1872), Mill Field (1874 and 1885) and Batsleys Farm (1906) John George (1832-1913) was a native of Llancarfan. He later became a coal merchant and goods agent for the Taff Vale railway William James had died; widow Harriet James had moved next door, a cabinet maker employing four men	Census 224 Census records and Electoral Registers E W Miles 'Cowbridge and District 1860-1930', Appendix 2, chs 2024
1874	J. George, owner J. Samuel.
1881	Maurice C. Roberts, 30, National Provincial Bank accountant, born Oswestry, with his wife Mary, 29, born Sheffield, and daughters Frances, 2, and Annie, 5 months, with visitor Frances E Fisher, widow of 62, from Sheffield.	Census
1891	William A. Lockhart, 34, Wesleyan minister born Bedfordshire, with wife Eliza, born Bridlington, and children Margaret 7, Charles 6, Maud 4 and William 1 ( all born in different parts of the country ), and a servant.	Census 96
1910	Emrys Davies, owned by Mrs Edmond
1911	Revd. Emrys John Davies, 43, born Dowlais, Calvinistic Methodist Minister, and wife Jane Davies, 43, born Montgomeryshire. Seven rooms.	Census
1912	Revd. Emrys Davies	Western Mail street directory
1914, 21st March	Conveyance, W.A James of Stafford House vendor to Joseph Gibbs and David Brown*, partners in the business of printing under the style of Gibbs and Brown – all that piece of land, formerly the site of a messuage and shop with garden, printing office in course of construction. ( Recites, T. Bennet's cottage owned by W.A James – right of way to the east )	Enfys Brown

