

CANOLFAN Y CELFYDDYDAU
ABERYSTWYTH ARTS CENTRE

A Queer thing's happening at the Arts Centre

CABARRATION

Saturday 8 November
7:30pm doors, 8pm onstage /// tickets £10

an

ABERRATION

event

01970 62 32 32

    /aberystwytharts
www.aber.ac.uk/artscentre

CANOLFAN Y CELFYDDYDAU
ABERYSTWYTH ARTS CENTRE

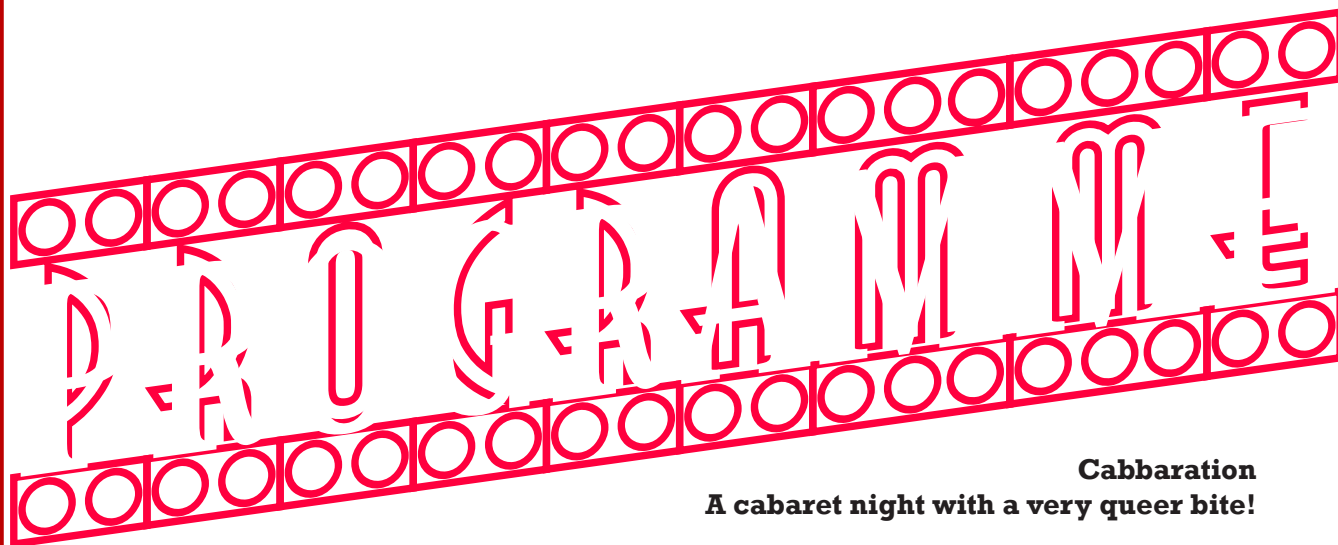

programmed by

SpringOut

Cyngor Celfyddydau Cymru
Arts Council of Wales

Cabbaration A cabaret night with a very queer bite!

Prepare to be amazed by a glitzy line-up of local and national talent in the Great Hall!

7.30pm doors open

Music from Emily Farr, with her soulful, raw and compelling sounds. Entertainment at your tables with Hilary Ramsden, surreal and funny rebel clown; and Ted Wroxley, amazing magician with nothing up his sleeve.

8pm onstage

Helen Sandler: Your host for the night.

Sgarnes: Aber's dynamic close-harmony chorus gives it some glitter, bringing you camp classics, pop covers in two tongues... and some surprises.

George Sandifer-Smith: Aber-based poet engages the audience with both humour and depth.

Mar Gongga: Juggling her magic crystal ball.

Ali Cocks: Melding dance, gymnastics and aerial arts with pole-dancing in a unique show of fitness and thrills.

The Swan Vestas: The music hall's last surviving male impersonator, Vesta Clitoria, treads the boards in the cheeky style of Tipping the Velvet. Brought to you by Jane Hoy, accompanied by Lisa Wordley.

Mimi Amore: A burlesque star who is sexy, humorous and downright dazzling, Mimi has been voted 'Legend in the Making'.

9pm Interval with entertainment. Bar. Popcorn from Crimson Rhino.

9.15pm Raffle draw, with acerbic writer and broadcaster Mike Parker, Plaid Cymru's candidate for Ceredigion in the next Westminster elections. Proceeds from the raffle and popcorn sales will be distributed by Stonewall's international team to LGBT causes overseas.

Prizes kindly donated by Over the Rainbow vegetarian guesthouse, Light of Asia Indian restaurant, Irie's Caribbean restaurant, Sombrero at Sophie's, Rummors bar, and other friends of Aberration.

9.30pm

Carey Wood-Duffy: American beat poet reads short, sharp pieces from new collection Grit.

Mimi Amore: more amore!

Ali Cocks: inviting YOU to have a go.

Izzy Rabey & Bill Sutton: Izzy's knockout voice soars through jazz classics and her own soulful songs.

Sgarnes: Seeing us out in style.

10.30pm dancing: DJ Boundary (Swing City) returns by popular demand to fill the dancefloor till late.

All timings are approximate. Lineup subject to change.

Official photographer Craig Kirkwood.

Thanks to the Arts Centre staff, our artists and volunteers, for making this evening possible, and to our prize donors for their generosity.

Programmed by Enfys Aber and SpringOut.

www.aberration.org.uk