Dear Mother

I received your parcel yesterday, and had Winnie's and Willie's this afternoon, the cake went well for tea and came in nice time as I didn't have any bread. We have been out of the trenches for a few days now and have enjoyed the rest too. The weather has been pretty rough up to now but today it's quite hot and I feel almost too ~~lazy~~ to write. Tell Winnie and Willie that I have got a postcard each for them, those silk ones but I can't get an envelope to fit them so will send them on as soon as I do. I think Cyril's Boat is about here somewhere so I have some chance of seeing him as well as Jack, wouldn't it be all right if the three of us could meet. It's a damn of a job to write this letter, I have had to leave it three times now and shall have to give it up altogether presently as I start work as soon as it's dark. I had a pretty East board
