

Memorandum that on or about the third day of February last past past in the year of our Lord God and King James the sixth hundred and seventeenth year by My Lord Morgan of the wife of Elizabeth in the County of Glamorgan and Sheriff of South Wales made published and allowed the heretofore mentioned will being in effect some and among of that time in words to this effect following in the presence and hearing of Mr David Williams
 Vicar of Monmouth, John Cadmye, and Elizabeth
 Bassett of Monmouth aforesaid, Imprimis
 gave all that ever she had or should have unto Katharine Egoff her daughter and to George Lewis husband unto the said Katharine, and not long after departed this life

A true Inventory of the goods of Elizabeth Morgan of the wife of Monmouth in the County of Glamorgan and Sheriff of South Wales deceased the 9th day of April 1671

Imprimis one Cow and one calf	8 9
And all her household stuff	10 0
	16 8
	2 16 8

April 10. 1671.

R. Owen Comr.

All this inventory of goods of Elizabeth Morgan of South Wales Sheriff of Glamorgan and Sheriff of South Wales made published and allowed the heretofore
 mentioned will being in effect some and
 among of that time in words to this effect following
 in the presence and hearing of Mr David Williams
 Vicar of Monmouth, John Cadmye, and Elizabeth
 Bassett of Monmouth aforesaid, Imprimis
 gave all that ever she had or should have unto Katharine Egoff her daughter and to George Lewis husband
 unto the said Katharine, and not long after
 departed this life

2 16 8

1671

John Cadmye
 Vicar of Monmouth
 Sheriff of Glamorgan and Sheriff of South Wales