FORM AND ORDER OF
OLD BOYS'
COMMEMORATION SERVICE

AT

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY CROSS,
COWBRIDGE

On ADVENT SUNDAY, 30th NOVEMBER, 1958

At Three o'clock

ALL STAND. When the clergy and surpliced choir have taken their places, there shall be sung :

J. Newton.

GLORIOUS things of Thee are spoken
Zion, city of our GOD;
He whose word cannot be broken
Form'd thee for His own abode.
On the Rock of ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose ?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

See, the streams of living waters,
Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove.
Who can faint while such a river
Ever flows their thirst to assuage;
Grace, which like the LORD the Giver,
Never fails from age to age ?

Round each habitation hov'ring,
See the cloud and fire appear,
For a glory and a cov'ring—
Showing that the LORD is near.
Thus they march, the pillar leading,
Light by night and shade by day;
Daily on the manna feeding
Which He gives them when they pray.

SAVIOUR, since of Zion's city
I, through grace, a member am,
Let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in Thy Name.
Fading is the world's best pleasure,
All it's boasted pomp and show;
Solid joys and lasting treasure
None but Zion's children know.

Amen

The Minister shall then say :

BELOVED, we are gathered together, with Angels and Saints and the spirits of just men made perfect, to praise God's holy Name for all His mercies towards us. On this day, we give special thanks for the life of this School, and its love of sound and godly learning through many ages. We remember before God the souls of Edward Stradling, Leoline Jenkins, and all others who have been its benefactors, or have been nurtured herein to be Christ's faithful servants in Church and State. And with thanksgiving for past mercies, we pray Almighty God that His fatherly hand may be upon this School in time to come. As our Saviour Christ has commanded and taught us, let us say :

ALL KNEEL. OUR Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; But deliver us from evil : For thine is the Kingdom, The power, and the glory. For ever and ever. Amen.

Minister : O Lord, open thou our lips.

Answer : And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Minister : O God, make speed to save us.

Answer : O Lord, make haste to help us.

ALL STAND. Minister : Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost.

Answer : As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

Minister : Praise ye the Lord.

Answer : The Lord's Name be praised.

Then shall be sung :

PSALM 148. Laudate Dominum.

O PRAISE the Lord of Heaven: praise him in the height.

2 Praise him, all ye angels of his : praise him, all his host.

3 Praise him, sun and moon : praise him, all ye stars and light.

4 Praise him, all ye heavens : and ye waters that are above the heavens.

5 Let them praise the Name of the Lord : for he spake the word, and they were made ; he commanded, and they were created.

6 He hath made them fast for ever and ever : he hath given them a law which shall not be broken.

7 Praise the Lord upon earth : ye dragons, and all deeps ;

8 Fire and hail, snow and vapours : wind and storm, fulfilling his word ;

9 Mountains and all hills : fruitful trees and all cedars ;

10 Beasts and all cattle : worms and feathered fowls ;

11 Kings of the earth and all people : princes and all judges of the world ;

12 Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the Name of the Lord : for his Name only is excellent, and his praise above heaven and earth.

13 He shalt exalt the horn of his people ; all his saints shall praise him : even the children of Israel, even the people that serveth him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

ALL SIT. Then shall follow the Lesson,

ECCLESIASTES 11 and 12

read by MR. D. G. WILLIAMS.

ALL KNEEL : The Lesson ended, the Minister shall say :

The Lord be with you.

Answer : And with thy spirit.

Minister : Let us pray.

FATHER, who hast through many generations and by many bountiful servants blessed this School for a house of faith and fruitful study : Grant us likewise in this place so to learn truth as to bear its light along all our ways, and so to learn Christ as ever to be found in him ; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. AMEN.

DIRECT, O God, with thy loving wisdom our schools of thought and science ; that they may more and more unveil the wondrous things of thy law, and draw all to adore thee with mind and heart and soul ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

INCLINE thine ear, O Lord, to our prayers wherewith we beseech thy mercy for the souls of thy servants whom thou hast bidden to leave this world, especially the souls of Edward Stradling, Leoline Jenkins, and all who were sometime masters or scholars in this School ; that thou wouldest grant them place in the kingdom of peace and light, and give them the company of thy saints ; through Christ our Lord. AMEN.

ALL STAND : A Procession shall now be formed, in the following order :

The Cross Bearer.

Mr. R. N. Bird.

Mr. W. S. Trigg.

The Headmaster.

The Reverend P. E. N. David.

The Reverend A. R. Davies.

The Other Clergy Present.

The Churchwardens.

The Lord Bishop of Bangor.

As the Procession makes its way towards the War Memorials, the School Choir shall sing :

Hostias et preces tibi, Domine, laudis offerimus ;

Tu suscipe pro animabus illis

Quarum hodie memoriam facimus.

Do thou, O Lord ; receive the offering of prayer and praise which we make to thee for the souls of those whom we remember this day.

Mozart : Requiem

When the Procession has reached the passage-way leading to the War Memorials, Mr. Bird, Mr. Trigg, the Headmaster, the Reverend A. R. Davies and the Lord Bishop of Bangor shall pass through and stand facing the War Memorials. The remainder of the Procession shall stand on either side of the passage way, and they and the Congregation shall turn in their places towards the Memorials.

Mr. R. N. Bird shall lay wreaths on the War Memorial Window.

Mr. W. S. Trigg and the Reverend A. R. Davies shall then read the names of those members of the School who fell in battle or died in the two World Wars.

The reading ended, the Bishop of Bangor shall say :

Grant them, O Lord, eternal rest ;

Answer : And let light perpetual shine upon them.

The Bishop : The Lord be with you.

Answer : And with thy spirit.

The Bishop : Let us bless the Lord.

Answer : Thanks be to God.

The Bishop : May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
AMEN.

The Procession having returned to the Chancel, there shall be sung:

Charles Wesley and others

LET saints on earth in concert sing
With those whose work is done ;
For all the servants of our King
In earth and heaven are one.

One family, we dwell in him,
One Church, above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death.

One army of the living God,
To his command we bow ;
Part of his host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.

E'en now to their eternal home
There pass some spirits blest,
While others to the margin come,
Waiting their call to rest.

Jesu, be thou our constant guide ;
Then, when the word is given,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
And bring us safe to heaven. AMEN.

THE SERMON

Preacher : THE LORD BISHOP OF BANGOR

After the Sermon, there shall be sung :

Walter Chalmers Smith.

IMMORTAL, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the
Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great name
we praise.

Unresting, unshaking, and silent as light.
Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest
in might ;
Thy justice like mountains high soaring above,
Thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

To all life Thou givest—to both great and small ;
In all life Thou livest, the true life of all ;
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
And wither and perish—but nought
changeth Thee.

Great Father of Glory, pure Father of Light,
Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling
their sight ;
All laud we would render ; O help us to see :
'Tis only the splendour of light hideth
Thee.

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the
Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great name
we praise. Amen.
