

The Glebe (linked with Vine Cottage), Llanblethian

- 1730 99 year lease, Charles Talbot of Castlemynach and Richard Talbot of Hensol to Jenkin Evan of Llanblethian, yeoman – cottage and garden in the occupation of Elizabeth Williams, in Llanblethian village D/Dyn 210
- 1777, 7th December Between William Earl Talbot of Hensol and David William of Llanblethian, labourer - all that ruinous cottage or dwelling house and garden belonging, about 21 perches, in the village of Llanblethian.
Premises now in the tenure/occupation of David William, lately held by lease to Jenkin Evans of Llanblethian for 99 years determined, or three lives, which lease lately expired.
To David William from May 1st next for the lives of Mary, his wife, John his son aged 3 years and Mary, his daughter aged 10 months, for £1 p a on the feast day of St Michael the Archangel (to keep in good repair) Deeds & D/Dyn 220
- 1840 John Williams, mason owned; vacant Tithe 203
(John Williams also owned Greenfield, The Vine and Tadwick)
Thomas Bassett owned; John Webb occupied, garden Tithe 202
- 1842 Death of John Williams, Glebe, leaving property to wife Ann Williams, and then to (1) eldest son John Williams (half yearly rent in the occupation of Rev Robert Phelps – Vine Cottage), then to his son's children,
(2) son David Williams and then to the children of Ann, daughter of John and Ann Williams (Standford) and to the children of John his son – house near Glebe garden, then occupied by Mrs Thomas, and also half yearly rent of Rev Robert Phelps, then to John Williams and children. Will
- 1851 Thomas Williams, 25, tailor journeyman, born Llanblethian, with wife Helen, two children aged 2 and 6 months Census 17
- 1852 Mrs Williams owned; Jenkin Williams, or John Jenkins, or John Meazey occupied (by Tyla Bach)
- 1856 Ann Williams died
- 1861 Thomas Cummins (from Wexford), with his wife;
Richard ?Grother, with wife and daughter Census 26
- 1871 Probably - Daniel Jones, 44, wool weaver and grocer, born Llysworney, with wife Mary Frances and twin daughters, Catherine and Elizabeth Census 30
- 1874 David Williams owned; ?Sergeant Hill occupied Glamorgan County Rate 29

- 1878, June To be sold – Glebe Cottage, Llanblethian : three bedrooms, parlour, kitchen, back kitchen, dairy, pantry, stable and coachhouse, cistern, large garden etc., now occupied by Mr Llewellyn Richards at £9 p a, subject to a life interest. Freehold. (Along with Vine Cottage also)
Inquire at Kingscombe House, Llanblethian
News cuttings of David Jones of Wallington
- (1880 Llewellyn Richards, farmer; living in Stallcourt as a boy in 1871 census) Slater's directory
- 1880 Bought by David Williams of Aberthin, retired builder (from wife Jane Edwards of Broadway) - all that cottage or dwelling house with garden and premises adjoining, marked 202 and 203 on the tithe map, occupied by Bethuel Edwards
Aberthin 136
- 1881 Llewellyn Richard, aged 21, farm labourer, with his sister Jane and brother Thomas
Census 33
- 1882 John Williams, son, died, leaving to Thomas Williams and Ann Williams (to be wife of George Jones)
- 1891 Llewellyn Richard, maltster's labourer, with wife Edith Mary, two sons and 11 lodgers (general labourers, one weaver)
Census 33
- 1891 David Williams died without issue. Property descended to Thomas Williams and Ann Jones, nee Williams, wife of George Jones.
(Ann Standford's two children died 1859 and 1879)
- 1895 Thomas Williams, stonemason, crockery smasher 'Boyhood Walk in Llanblethian 1895'
- 1910 John James occupied; Thomas Williams etc. owned D/D PROVAL/1/46
- 1910 Thomas Williams died, leaving son David J Williams as executor
- 1910 Ann Jones went to live in the Glebe, and in 1921 Mabel E Warren, her niece, went to live with her
- 1926 Legal estate in Glebe Cottage vested in D J Williams and Ann Jones as joint tenants upon statutory trusts.
- 1926 Ann Jones died, leaving her half share of the Glebe to Mabel Warren, her niece. Vine Cottage then in ruins.
- 1934 David J Williams of Factory Road, labourer, conveyed his half share in Glebe Cottage, Greenfield and Vine Cottage to M E Warren, wife of James Warren

1943 Mabel Warren moved to live in Greenfield. She conveyed Glebe and Vine Cottage (ruinous cottage) to John Thomas of New House farm, farmer

1967 John Thomas sold The Glebe to Morgan John Price of St Mary Church

1969 M J Price sold to Keith T Browning.
Re-arrangement of garden ownership.

(Much of the information from the property Deeds, shown to Jeff Alden)

Sources/references :

*Most documents used for this information are held in Glamorgan Record Office.
Deeds with the house owner*