

Cowbridge's day of protest as town's traders and residents try to save the cattle market

PHOTOGRAPHS by GLYN EVANS and MIKE WILCOCK.

{Photos marked 'GE' are by Glyn (telephone 07791 228684) and those marked 'MW' by Mike (telephone 01446 774484).}

Vale AM joined the Mayor of Cowbridge, Coun Andy Banks, on the podium.

THOUSANDS of local residents joined last Friday's protest in Cowbridge at plans to sell the site of the livestock market for housing for the elderly.

The marchers stretched from the town hall to the cattle market, and they stayed to hear Alun John, the president of Cowbridge Chamber of Trade, outline the situation as the chamber saw it.

