

W E L C O M E

On behalf of Cowbridge Cricket Club may I extend a warm welcome to everyone visiting the Athletic Ground today.

As we near the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of our first recorded match it is a special pleasure to play a part in the centenary celebrations of Glamorgan. Our two clubs have enjoyed a long and happy association through cricketers such as Maurice Turnbull, L.E.W. Williams, J.C. Clay - who was President of both clubs, Howard Morgan, Aubrey Edwards and John Davies. Now the Centenary Chairman, Tony Lewis and Captain Hugh Morris continue a valued connection.

We hope you will enjoy your day at Cowbridge with good cricket, good company and, dare we hope, good weather.

NIGEL ANDERSON, CHAIRMAN

THE COWBRIDGE AND GLAMORGAN TEAMS

1. JEFFREY BIRD: Club Captain for the third time. Obdurate left hander and optimistic leg spinner
2. HUGH MASON: Vice Captain, right hand bat. Has ambition to keep wicket.....
3. ANDREW BRACE: Fits in Cowbridge matches between visits to Beckenham. Has applied for Country membership. Prolific batsman.
4. DEREK CLEAVER: former Club Captain with a batting style all his own. Enjoying first class season.
5. STEVE LACEY: When Steve hits 'em, they stay hit. Languid fielding belies his spectacular batting.
6. PHIL LACEY: Exciting pace bowler and Captain of the successful U.19 XI.
7. MALCOLM WOOLLEY: Club Secretary and wicket keeper, is unchallenged for the No.11 spot.
8. PAUL ROEBUCK: Glamorgan 2nd XI player who introduced professional phraseology (in "good pace") to Cowbridge. Traffic directions are not his strong point and is likely to arrive via the By-Pass.
9. LIAM SULLIVAN: Yorkshireman resident in Wales with an Irish name schizophrenic batting should surprise no one, slow or stop! Enjoying a successful season.
10. ANDY MORRIS: Known as "The Policeman", he'll be looking to arrest brother Hugh early on. Cowbridge's Player of the Year in 1987.
11. PAUL GRIFFITHS: Local Cricketer who has taken loadsawickets for the club in recent seasons.
12. GERANT BATY: All rounder whose six into the Bear field was the highlight of Glamorgan's last visit.
1. HUGH MORRIS: Glamorgan Skipper and Cowbridge bred who has close ties with the club and it's benefactors, e.g. The Duke of Wellington
2. JOHN HOPKINS: Popular batsman from Maesteg who enjoyed a successful benefit match here in 1986.
3. ALAN BUTCHER: Former test player who has become a great asset to Glamorgan since joining from Surrey.
4. RAVI SHASTRI: India's test Captain who once hit six sixes in an over, twice would be greedy.
5. GEOFF HOLMES: Averaging over 50 this year in the County Championship. Almost as fast as Hugh Mason between the wickets.
6. RODNEY ONTONG: The best off spinner in England in recent years now in good form with the bat.
7. GREG THOMAS: Previous highlight of his career was playing for Wales' Schools with Andy Brace and then playing for England.
8. COLIN METSON: Superb wicket keeper who joined from Middlesex.
9. TONY COTTEY: Superb fielder and quick scoring batsman. Excellent soccer player.
10. STEVEN WATKIN: Exciting newcomer to the County XI recently took five wickets against Sussex.
11. STEVEN BARWICK: Glamorgan stalwart from Briton Ferry, Quick medium bowler.
