

WITH THE VILLAGE OF LLANBLETHIAN AND NEIGHBOURHOODS.

COWBRIDGE is a parliamentary borough and small market-town, in the parish and hundred of its name, county of Glamorgan; 172 miles w. from London, 12 w. from Cardiff, and 7 e. from Brigend; situated in a pleasant fertile bottom, surrounded by a well cultivated country. The town consists chiefly of one long street, stretching from east to west, containing some well-built houses, a town hall, and convenient market-house. It is a contributory borough, with Cardiff and Llantrissaint, in returning one member to parliament; and is governed by a mayor and two bailiffs, who are elected by the burgesses, the former officer for life, the latter annually. A court of record may be holden under the charter of Charles II., but the corporation do not avail themselves of the privilege; the only court is one of common-council, held as occasion may require, for transacting the borough business. This place is without manufactures; and its trade, which is local and domestic, is chiefly supported by those engaged in agriculture, and by its market and fairs, which are tolerably well attended.
