CHARITY COMMISSION.

In the Matter of the several Charities, in the Parish of COWBRIDGE, in the County of GLAMORGAN, respectively known as—

- (1.) The WELSH WESLEYAN METHODIST CHAPEL;
- (2.) The Charity for the same purposes comprised in a certain Indenture dated the 20th February 1834, and made between Mary Simpson, Widow, of the first part, James Ballard, Innkeeper, and two others of the second part, David Jones, Glazier, of the third part, James Reynolds the Younger, Tailor, and seven others of the fourth part, and the Reverend Evan Edwards, Minister of the Gospel, of the fifth part; and

(3.) The ENGLISH WESLEYAN METHODIST CHAPEL, comprised in a certain Indenture dated the 6th August 1864, and made between David James Harmar, a Major in Her Majesty's Service, of the first part, William Tilley, Blacksmith, of the second part, John Parsons, Grocer, and eight others of the third part, and the Reverend Samuel Hope Wardley, Superintendent Preacher, of the fourth part ; and

In the Matter of "The Charitable Trusts Acts, 1853 to 1887."

The Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, upon an application made to them on the 25th October 1887, in writing signed by

HENRY JOHNSON, of Cowbridge, Watchmaker ; and

WILLIAM PRICE, of Bridgend, Woolstapler, both in the above-mentioned County of Glamorgan ;
a majority of the surviving Trustees of the above-mentioned Charities, of which the gross annual pecuniary income arising from endowment does not amount to 50l. :

And after due notice of the intention to make this Order published according to the direction of the Board by being affixed to the principal outer door of each of the above-mentioned Chapels on the 30th November 1887, being more than one calendar month previously to the date hereof, and also sent through the Post to

EDWARD JOHN, late of Bridgend aforesaid, Currier ;

(being the only Trustee of the Charities who did not join in the said application) at his last known place of abode in Great Britain or Ireland, on the 29th November 1887 :

And having received no notice of any objection to this Order or suggestion for the variation thereof:

Do hereby Order as follows, viz. :—

1. The said EDWARD JOHN is removed from being a Trustee of the Charities :

2. THOMAS REES, Solicitor;
THOMAS JOHN PARSONS, Grocer;
PHILIP GRIFFITHS, Grocer;
WILLIAM JAMES DAVIES, Painter;
GEORGE RICHARD PICKARD, Cabinetmaker;
JOHN PICKARD, Grocer; and MATTHIAS DAVIES, Painter, all of Cowbridge; HUGH BEVAN, Merchant; and WILLIAM BUCKLEY, Ironmonger, both of Bridgend; and WILLIAM ANDREWS, Postmaster, and WILLIAM LAWRENCE PRICE, Draper, both of Llantwit Major, all in the County of Glamorgan; (who have respectively signified in writing to the Board their willingness to accept and act in the Trust) are appointed to be Trustees for the administration of the Charities, in addition to and jointly with HENRY JOHNSON, and WILLIAM PRICE,
the continuing Trustees thereof:

3. The hereditaments described in the Schedule hereto,
and all other lands and hereditaments (if any) held in trust for the Charities, and not being of copyhold tenure, shall forthwith vest in the said persons, who, by virtue hereof,
are constituted the Trustees of the Charities, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, according to the legal nature of the same premises upon and for the subsisting trusts thereof.

SCHEDULE.

1. A plot of land, with the chapel thereon, known as the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Chapel, and lately used as a Wesleyan Methodist Sunday School, situate at Cowbridge, and abutting north on the road leading to Cardiff, part of which land was comprised in the above-mentioned Indenture of the 20th February 1834.

2. A chapel or meeting-house, known as the English Wesleyan Methodist Chapel, together with the dwelling-house in the rear thereof, and also the garden adjoining to and at the back of the said dwelling-house, situate in the East Village of the Town of Cowbridge.

Sealed by Order of the Board this 3rd day of July 1888.
