GOOD FRIDAY.

We would remind our readers that in consequence of Easter Day being early this year Good Friday falls on Friday, April 2nd, and that Holy Week commences on March 29th.

Whatever Good Friday may be to others, to us it is the day in which we devotionally commemorate the removal of the power, stain and guilt of sin, and that the Crucifixion of our Lord Jesus Christ is to us the very core and foundation of a victorious and living faith. Our Lenten Season has been somewhat disturbed by the visit of the Military and the work entailed in many households in consequence, as well as the epidemic of influenza so prevalent in the district these last few weeks, however we must try and counter-balance by a reverential observance of Holy Week and Good Friday.

N.B.—EASTER COMMUNION—The Rubric of the Prayer Book directs every Parishioner shall communicate at least three times in the year, of which Easter is to be one.

The Churchwardens wish to remind the Parishioners that the offertories at all the services on Easter Day will as usual be given to the Vicar in lieu of Easter Dues.

THE MILITARY.

In the same way that we accorded a welcome last month to the A Squadron of the G.Y.R. so we extend a similar warm welcome to the Officers and Men of the B Squadron. That they may leave Cowbridge like the A Squadron reluctantly and with pleasant memories of their visit is the sincere wish of all the inhabitants.

St. Mary's Sunday School have lost the services through the departure of two faithful teachers in the persons of Miss Lush and Miss Alice Marks. Miss Lush has gone to reside in Reading and Miss Marks has taken up new duties in Cardiff.

THE LATE RURAL DEAN.

The Rural Deanery of Groneath Lower has suffered a great loss by the death of the Rev. D. Evans, M.A., Rector of Llanmaes and Rural Dean. Mr. Evans had been Rector of the same parish for nearly forty years, and in consequence of the parish being small and rural he was able to devote his time to Diocesan Mission Work.—R.I.P.
