

Chs 06038-1 Standard 3 Bontfaen school March 1927 – names & information from Arthur John (see 'Cowbridge & District Remembered') and (later) Billy James

Back row : Mr Billy Frederick, class teacher on to right, built and lived in the house standing alone on the Aberthin road out of Cowbridge, just beyond the Comprehensive School.

Arthur Jones (garage), Ethel Smith (Primrose Hill), Carol Chisell (Piccadilly), Peggy Jenkins (Greenfield Terrace, Llanblethian), Phyllis Wilcox (Aberthin), Molly Wilde (Llanblethian), Joyce Deeves (Westgate – her father sang alto in the church choir), Megan David (butchers), Phylis Trott (Cae Stumpie), Winnie Overton (Westgate, nr Stafford House), Gwyneira Llewellyn (Llanblethian)

Second row : Arthur John (Church St), Jack Davies (Cae Stumpie), Paddy McAdam (son of maths master at CGS; lived in bungalow opposite Cusop), Harold Oakley (Croft Terrace; father was grave digger), Trevor Green (Llanblethian), Joe Cocks (5 Church St), Harold Tucker (family had shops where JB Builders is and where Bridge garage is), Malcolm Cooper (Croft St, left hand side, china shop; earlier klived in Eastgate), Walter Stone (Llanblethian mill), Ronald James (Croft St – GWR), Mansel Thomas (Aubrey Terrace, last but one house).

Front row : Raymond Jenkins (Llandough; father was a groom with Sir Sydney Byass, Llandough Castle), Mary Checkett (father was boot & shoe repairer, where Chinese takeaway is), Charlie David (3 Church St; lived with grandparents; went into Welsh Guards), John Harkett (Broadway cottages, Llanblethian), Bert Jenkins (Greenfield Terrace, Llanblethian), Colin Adams (Bridge Farm, Llanblethian), Frank James (Hillside, Mount Ida – uncle to Billy James), Glyn Spencer (Piccadilly, Llanblethian), Roy Cooper (brother of Mansel), Herbert James (The Kennels, Mount Ida), Gwyneth Punter (Croft Terrace)

Mr Sloman (head teacher, standing on right hand side. Very strict. Lived in the house adjoining the school. Succeeded by Mr 'Skid' Roberts).